

LIVESTOCK SERIES

The Livestock Series organized by Informa Markets is the event portfolio in Southeast Asia that caters to the livestock, aquaculture, poultry, feeds, and meat sectors. These have been the staple B2B events for suppliers, manufacturers, key decision makers, trade buyers, and stakeholders in the livestock industry that provide a comprehensive one-stop platform for innovative products, the latest technology for livestock and the likes, and a melting-pot of invaluable content that are beneficial to the industry.
